DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1-26 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-12 of U.S. Patent No. 6,596,011. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they recite the same subject matters as following: an emboli extraction catheter and vascular filter for insertion into a lumen of a vessel comprising: a guidewire, a vascular filter comprises a porous flexible filter membrane, actuating means for causing the vascular filter to move from the smaller first diameter to the larger second diameter, a flexible catheter, a radio-opaque tip, a hub comprises a side port and means for maintaining a seal on a guidewire. As to claims 13-15 and 25-26 are not patentably distinct from each other because they are essentially the same as those in the cited patent.

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
